

MEETING:	MHLAC	MEETING DATE:	December 7, 2017	MEETING TIME:	12:00 pm
LOCATION:	Holy Rosary Healthcare, Rm 3	CHAIRPERSON: Vacant
PRESENT:	Antonia Klein, Jennifer Winkley, Kathy Dyba, Kathleen Kaiser, Jeanne Vetch, Beth Ann Wiedeman, Samantha Pierson
TOPIC	DISCUSSION/CONCLUSIONS/RECOMMENDATIONS		ACTION	Timeline
Youth Dynamics	Jennifer reported that the first round of the free online Common Sense Parenting classes has ended. Registration is open for the next round and there are a few people signed up. As time goes on they expect that more people will sign up as people discover the program is available. Jennifer mentioned that it is not likely the Youth MHFA class will be presented in December in Broadus but likely in January at this point.		Will update at January meeting.
Strategic Planning	The Kindness Rock Project was discussed by Antonia and reported that Scott told her that the shop class has finished the four rock display boxes and plans to have the teens with Let's Talk Miles City fill them up with rocks to be painted. He will keep one box of rocks for the art class to start painting. Arrangements were made for delivery of the rocks. The planning of a rock painting party was discussed and members were agreeable and thought it would be fun. Antonia will contact Karl Rosston and Jim Hajny for presentations in the spring. Discussion was held on the importance of supporting the Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) training in Miles City. Board members were very pleased that Beez and Sara Lucero, principals of two local public schools have made plans to present an ACEs training this month.		Will continue discussions at January meeting
CSCT Report	Samantha reported that the Comprehensive School and Community Treatment Services (CSCT) program now has 28 teens within the public schools receiving mental health services. A second therapist has been hired. Samantha discussed the CSCT program, stating that it is now in Glasgow, Broadus, Forsyth, Huntley, and Miles City schools where the program is going strong at Washington Middle School, elementary schools, and Custer County District High School.		Update at January meeting

APS Report	Beth Ann reported that she had attended a meeting wherein it was mentioned by an AWARE staff member that they provide training for law enforcement officers in dealing with individuals who have the dual diagnosis of a developmental disability and mental illness. Beth Ann offered to make arrangements, if possible to have AWARE present at least the highlights of their training to the BHLAC. The Board members discussed efforts by the DD Division in the past to bring awareness to communities about the dually diagnosed individuals and the need for community awareness in how they can be approached in a crisis situation.
Treasurer's Report	Jeanne reported that no funds have been expended this month.	Will update at January meeting.
Next Meeting	Thursday, January 4th at 12:00 at HRHC in Conference room 1.	.

--	--	--	--