Youth Dynamics	Jennifer reported that the free online Common Sense Parenting classes have started statewide and 8 people have signed up. The Youth Mental Health First Aid training class is scheduled for November 14 from 1-5 and November 15 from 8-11:30. Nicole Bergman is the presenter. A Broadus Youth Mental Health First Aid training class is going to be held in Broadus in December. Jennifer reported that they are looking at a potential summer class or one to be held on a PIR day for educators.		Will update at December meeting.
Strategic Planning	The Kindness Rock Project was discussed by Antonia and Jeanne. Supplies have been purchased but suitable rocks have yet to be gathered. Weather permitting members will attempt to gather them. Youth Dynamics has decided to join the awareness events and has developed their logo for the rocks and agreed to display them at their office. Antonia stated she will contact Karl Rosston, Suicide Prevention Coordinator closer to spring to schedule a time for him to do a presentation. Discussions were held on having Jim Hajny come to Miles City to present a Recovery workshop for providers. Antonia discussed the Montana Peer Network efforts and the growth of the peer movement in Montana. She will send out the link to the Montana Peer Network's Facebook page to the LAC members.		Will continue discussions at December meeting
MHFA	Antonia made an inquiry into whether the HRHC via Marybeth Squires would be interested in providing MHFA training to the Miles Community College nursing students this spring. Marybeth agreed. Antonia will provide Rachel's contact information to Marybeth to get the plans started for a class in the spring.		Will update at December meeting.

Let's Talk Miles City	Andrew Donnelly discussed upcoming research that will be initiated with teens who attend the LTMC group. Andrew is working with Professor Keller of MSU-B and Dr. Al-Hafez of the Global Health Equity Foundation who are the catalyst behind suicide prevention efforts for youth in rural Montana. Discussions were held on the history and growth of LTMC in Miles City and Billings.	Will update at a later meeting once research is underway.
Treasurer's Report	Jeanne reported that approximately $80. was spent for painting rock supplies and the balance is now $6900.49.	Will update at December meeting.
Next Meeting	Thursday, December 7th at 12:00 at HRHC in Conference room 3.	.
